Dear Erewhon,

I am writing to thank you for your instant oatmeal product and tell you the story of how it has made a difference in my life. On a morning such as this one when I feel like starving myself your uncompromised product made with 100% certified organic oats and real maple syrup and packaged in individual serving sizes is simple enough for me to boil, add the water and then eat up.

In the shadow of my impending break-up with  and the 6 wk. old "barely-human" foetus I am carrying your quality cereal is sustaining me through to a better day. If it were not for your single caring gesture towards myself which I am so in need of. Although my inability to accept the reality of painful, horrifying, and very sad situations has not been touched by your cereal or the eating thereof, I've found a grounding that happens through the eating of some 'healthful' earth-food. Through indecision and heartbreak your product helps in keeping my soul from flitting away.

Sincerely yours,
A satisfied customer,
Lisa K. Smolkin
